

A photograph of a bar interior. In the foreground on the right, a dartboard is mounted on a wall, illuminated by a warm, golden light. The dartboard has a standard layout with numbers 1 through 20. Below the dartboard, there are some small, dark objects, possibly darts or a control panel. In the background, a bar counter is visible, with a television screen mounted on the wall above it. The lighting is dim and warm, creating a cozy atmosphere. The text "Girl's Bar" and "A l'aise" is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.
